

NAFF 2013

Welcome to the NAFF race for 2013. The National Australian Fan Fund (NAFF) was created to assist fans to travel across Australia to attend the National Science Fiction Convention (Natcon). NAFF assists fans to travel to the Natcon and covers the costs of airfares and accommodation. The Natcon donates a convention membership. This year's NAFF race is to the 52nd Australian Natcon, Conflux 9, which will be held in Canberra over the 25th- 28th April 2013. It is expected that the winner will produce a report of their trip, engage in fundraising to support future NAFF races, and to help administer the NAFF race for the following two years. All Australian fans are eligible to vote. The voting process contributes to the fundraising so each vote costs $5. You are more than welcome to donate more than this amount!

Votes are being collected by: Sarah Lee Parker, John Parker (WA) and the candidate. For more information please contact Sarah at callisto@gmail.com. Voting opens Monday 18th February 2013 and concludes on Wednesday 3rd of April 2013.

Please make all cheques payable to NAFF or National Australian Fan Fund. Email Sarah if you would like to pay via direct deposit or PayPal. Cash, in person, is welcome, but not through the mail! Postal address: NAFF, PO Box 249, Pascoe Vale South, VIC, 3044

Emma Kate

Emma attended her first con in 2011, Swancon/Natcon 50, and this led to a hankering to be more involved in the Australian spec fic community. So, she became an Aurealis Awards judge! She read fantasy novels in 2011 and horror novels and short stories in 2012. The chance to attend Conflux 2013 would afford her the opportunity to meet the amazing authors whose works she's been reading as well as share her love of spec fic with other fans. She blogs at emmakate.me and tweets @waqem.

Nominated by: Tansy Rayner Roberts (TAS), Tehani Wessley (TAS), and Sarah Parker (WA)
